DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at level VI may also perform work listed within the previous levels.

Note: Employees in this job classification series may independently perform the full range of work listed in the examples and may coordinate, oversee, or direct that work or similar work of others. Factors that may distinguish between the levels include the size of the park/historic site being managed; park/historic site facilities; natural, cultural, or historical significance of the park/historic site; number of employees supervised; complexity of work; and size of the park/historic site budget.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT I: Performs moderately complex (journey-level) park/historic site management work. Works under general supervision, with limited latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT II: Performs complex (journey-level) park/historic site management work. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT III: Performs highly complex (senior-level) park/historic site management work. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may oversee the financial, operational, and administrative functions of a medium-sized state park/historic site.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT IV: Performs advanced (senior-level) park/historic site management work. Works under minimal supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may oversee the financial, operational, and administrative functions of a medium- to large-sized state park/historic site.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT V: Performs highly advanced (senior-level) park/historic site management work. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may oversee the financial, operational, and administrative functions of a highly complex state park/historic site.

PARK/HISTORIC SITE SUPERINTENDENT VI: Performs highly advanced and/or managerial (senior-level) park/historic site management work. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may:

- Direct the financial, operational, and administrative functions of a highly complex state park/historic site.
- Direct park/historic site operations.
- Direct, oversee, evaluate, and conduct educational and interpretive programs and organize special events and programs.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES

EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

Experience in park/historic site management work, which may include cultural resources or museums. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in park/historic site administration, natural or cultural resource management or interpretation, history, museum science, or a related field is generally preferred. Experience and education may be substituted for one another.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

For all levels

- Knowledge of park/historic site administration and operations, natural and cultural resource management, maintenance management, and human resources management.
- Skill in the administration of business operations and facilities; oversight of equipment usage; and ground repairs and techniques.
- Ability to manage financial systems, accountability of budgets, purchasing, revenue collection, inventory, and property; and to supervise the work of others.

REGISTRATION, CERTIFICATION, OR LICENSURE

May require registration, certification, or licensure in a specialty area.

May require certification as a Texas peace officer by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement.

May require a valid driver's license.
