GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Performs advanced and/or supervisory (senior-level) mediation work. Work involves overseeing dispute resolution activities; assisting employees or the general public in resolving conflicts and issues or concerns in situations such as filing claims, obtaining or disputing benefits, or resolving grievances; preparing participants for conferences, meetings, hearings, and proceedings; and investigating complaints. May supervise the work of others. Works under minimal supervision, with extensive latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

EXAMPLES OF WORK PERFORMED

Oversees programs that assist employees or the general public in applying for benefits, preparing for hearings, requesting court action, and resolving grievances or disputes.

Oversees and/or performs complaint investigations, findings, and resolutions; mediates grievances and disputes; and recommends action to resolve the most difficult or exceptional issues.

Oversees and resolves or mediates various types of grievances, disputes, or claims, including those of the highest complexity or large in scope.

Oversees the organization and maintenance of documentation and the recording of information on contacts and case actions.

Oversees and provides guidance to staff in the development and integration of new methods, policies, and procedures related to program activities.

Consults with various groups on issues and procedures concerning conferences, meetings, hearings, and arbitration proceedings.

Facilitates information sharing among various parties involved in a grievance, dispute, or claim.

Provides information and assistance to employees or the general public; investigates complaints; and communicates with various groups on behalf of the individuals with a grievance, dispute, or claim.
Provides input in the updating of procedures, practices, and policies for publication by the agency.

Functions as a technical expert for grievances or claims processing and procedures. Performs community education outreach activities to coordinate and stimulate interest in program services.

Advocates or oversees others who advocate for the rights of residents in facilities.

May supervise the work of others.

Performs related work as assigned.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES

EXPERIENCE AND EDUCATION

Experience in claims management, insurance, social work, workers’ compensation, counseling, mediation, or dispute resolution work.
