DESCRIPTION OF LEVELS

Examples of work and descriptions are meant to progress through the levels. For example, an employee at a level III may also perform work listed within the previous levels. Factors that may distinguish between the levels include the degree of independence in performing the work, the complexity of the work, and the scope of responsibility. Other factors may include the type of jail, prison, or correctional facility; assigned population; and the level of security of the facility.

COUNSEL SUBSTITUTE I: Performs entry-level work as a representative and an advocate of offenders in a correctional facility. Works under close supervision, with minimal latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment.

COUNSEL SUBSTITUTE II: Performs complex (journey-level) work as a representative and an advocate of offenders in a correctional facility. Works under general supervision, with moderate latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may provide guidance to others and may analyze offenders' positions and advise on alternative plans of action.

COUNSEL SUBSTITUTE III: Performs advanced (senior-level) work as a representative and an advocate of offenders in a correctional facility. Works under limited supervision, with considerable latitude for the use of initiative and independent judgment. Employees at this level may serve in a lead or supervisory role, perform the full range of work identified within every level, coordinate or oversee that work, and may:

- Coordinate counsel-substitute program activities.
- Coordinate the maintenance of records and prepare reports for program activities.
- Review summary of witness statements and documentary evidence.
- Participate in assigning representation to offenders.

GENERAL QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES
